About the Cover

The cover design is a painting by Rosel Valenzuela entitled Maria Makiling. Done in 1991, it appeared in the Feminist Expression Series (1995) of the Institute of Women's Studies – Nursia. Maria Makiling is a famous legend among the Tagalogs in southern Luzon about a woman-spirit who appears in the forest of Mt. Makiling especially after a storm or disaster to grant people reprieve from loss and suffering by bringing food, herbs, plants and even precious stones. Today, one sees her body's silhouette on the mountain ridges of Makiling – a reminder of how her deeds of generosity had equalized and harmonized the imbalance brought about by disaster. She is truly a Lady of Justice.
