About the Cover

Elizabeth Padillo Olesen titled her painting "Christian Integrity in a Globalised Society". She was thinking of every person's relationship to human beings, nature, God and one's self. The circle represents the continents that make up our one world and our common hands, hearts and minds bear them with a great sense of responsibility and love. This is a good piece to start a dialogue on globalisation, responsibility, sharing and integrity of creation - themes of much concern with IGI and AWRC since their beginnings.
