About the Cover

All my life the pot was my prison i lived in it, it was my security the pots in my life are many the womb of child birth the earthen vessel filled up in the riverbed the container for storing grains made by my labour, filled by my labour, emptied in labour, my labour owned by whom? we shall smash this prison in the cosmic dance denied to us for thousands of years beyond the fragments
– What?
